AUSTIN CORBIN, FROM AMBUSH.

The Well-Known New York Banker, Killed in a Runaway.

His Coachman Died From His Injuries a Few Hours Later.

Corbin Edgell, a nephew, and Dr. Paul Kuzler were badly injured. The Victoria Theatre crew an eight-foot embankment, against a wall.

NEWPORT, N. H., June 5.—Mr. Austin Corbin and his nephew, Corbin Edgell, with Dr. Paul Kuzler and Coachman John Stokes, started on a fishing trip about three o'clock Thursday afternoon. On going out of the yard at the farm house the horses slipped, tipping over the open carriage, throwing the occupants down an embankment about eight feet against a stone wall. The family saw the accident from the piazza and hurried to the assistance with the farm help. They found Mr. Corbin conscious but terribly wounded. His nephew and the doctor were also conscious. The coachman was unconscious and apparently hurt the worst of all. They were carried to the house and doctors summoned. Mr. Corbin's injuries were very serious, a compound fracture of the right leg above the right knee, a fearful scalp wound over four inches long on the forehead, cut through to the skull, one on the right side of the head three inches long and the hip and chin cut badly.

Dr. Kuzler was thrown over the wall and sustained a broken arm and sprained ankle, so far as known, and Corbin Edgell has his leg broken between the knee and ankle. John Stokes, right leg broken between the knee and ankle and sustained a fractured skull. Stokes was killed by his injuries about six o'clock without regaining consciousness.

The cause of the horses shying is said to be from the fact that the coachman was driving them for the first time without blinkers.

Mr. Corbin died at 9:42 Thursday evening, shortly after the arrival of Dr. C. C. Cleary from Boston. His son, Austin Corbin, Jr., arrived on a train from Boston about eleven o'clock, but too late to see his father alive. All the other members of the family, with the exception of his son-in-law, Mr. Geo. S. Edgell, who is in the city, were present when he breathed his last.

New York, June 5.—Austin Corbin was born in Newport. His father was a farmer who was many times elected to the legislature of New Hampshire. After receiving a moderate amount of education, he taught a country school. He afterwards studied law and was admitted to the bar of New Hampshire and New York. He was a partner in 1863 of the banking firm of Mabel and Corbin, which was the only members of the kind in New York. He did not succeed in the financial panic. Corbin organized the Commercial Bank, which began business under the national currency act. The bank was successful and Mr. Corbin was elected president in 1890. He was a considerable fortune here he founded the Corbin Building Co. and acquired interest after interest until he became one of the leading financiers of the country.

Mr. Corbin had a beautiful home on Long Island, another in the city, besides his town houses. His New Hampshire property consisted of a large tract of land on all mountain and valley. This last property is the greatest and best stocked game preserve on the continent.

AN ALLEGED STEP-DAUGHTER.

Makes Claim to Theatrical Manager John Stetson's Millions.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 5.—Catherine Shirley, a resident of this city, claiming to be a step-daughter of the late John Stetson, the famous theatrical manager of Boston, has filed a suit in Boston to prevent the probating of the will and claiming the estate left by Mr. Stetson, which, she says, includes a controlling interest in the Boston Globe and other property, in all amounting to about two million dollars. Mrs. Shirley is 30 years of age, is married when very young. Her husband is a clerk in Chicago, from whom she has been separated for some time and from whom she still has a child. According to her story she is the only child of Mrs. Kate Stetson, who died a month ago. Her father, she says, was Carl Stetson. He and his mother were members of a circus company, and she was born in Quincy, Ill.

The Oregon Elections.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5.—Both republicans and populist state chairmen are claiming the election of their nominees for congress in both districts. The latest returns on the congressional election in the Second district give Quinn (pop.) 1,304; Ellis (republican) 1,458. This gives Ellis 154 plurality. State Chairman Hirsch, of the republican committee, is very confident that the official canvass will increase Ellis' plurality.

Cadets Appointed.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Cadets in the United States Military academy have been appointed as follows: William C. Blundell, Bradford, Pa.; Fred L. Pfahler, Meyersdale, Pa.; Albert W. E. Everett, Glasgow, Ky.; Preston D. Lewis, Mayville, Ky.; Win. F. Palmer, Middletown, O.; alternate, Thomas A. Barko, Cleveland, O.; and Louis Baron, St. Louis, alternate for the Twelfth Missouri district.

FROM AMBUSH.

An Electric Car at Milwaukee Fired Into.

Motorman Breen Fatally and Conductor Schwatzer Seriously Injured.

About Thirty Shots in All Were Fired and the Victims Were Killed.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 5.—Late Thursday night a car on the Howell street extension was fired upon by unknown parties, and Motorman John E. Breen fatally and Conductor Schwatzer seriously injured. About 30 shots were fired but who the would-be assassins were is not known, as the shots came from behind a clump of bushes about six blocks from the city line. The car was fired upon by bullets and had been there any passengers in it, the list of fatalities would have been much larger. Breen was shot in the back, the ball penetrating his kidneys and bladder. The motorman was shot in the right leg above the knee. Both men were taken to the Emergency hospital, where it is said Breen will die before morning.

The police were immediately informed of the outrage and sent a squad to the scene, but no arrests were made. The shooting is undoubtedly the outcome of the street riot which broke out from Manitowish, Mich., a week ago. Detectives arrested J. H. Garrison, a striking motorman, and John Walters, a motorer, in the vicinity of the scene of the shooting affair at midnight. Both men were armed with revolvers.

The total relief fund now totals $161,634.41.

All checks sent to Mayor Wallbridge are at once turned over to the relief committee.

The per capita permits issued in St. Louis to date number 127; inquests held, no permits issued; 1 killed, bodies not recovered; 13 wounded in hospital; 90 missing people; 33; total probable fatalities, 314.

Nobodies were recovered from the ruins Thursday morning. Those reported missing are: James Clark of Cincinnati, O.; George Malory, 28, of 300 North Sixth street; John W. Nolan, 31, of 1000 Howard street; John Gohring, 45, machinist, of 2377 Cherokee street; Gustave Dertling, 36, of 324 North Broadway. Nothing has developed to account for the persons who are supposed to have been swept away on planks along the river which lined the river shore when the storm came. There were probably 30 of these boats. The identity of the persons on board is not known. Many of them were certainly drowned, but how many will never be known. It is impossible to estimate the number of persons who were on the crafts.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—The general relief fund for the tornado sufferers Thursday night footed up $191,000.

There are many independent relief organizations in St. Louis, and the amount to $220,000. There is no abatement of zeal in those who have volunteered their services in personifying the relief fund. The relief fund probably represents only one half of the actual relief, as food, clothing, medicines, furniture, but ding materials, and other necessities are being furnished by other aids in the merciful work not considered in the summing up. The work of giving the tornado sufferers a new start in life seems as big as ever to the committee at work at the south side relief stations, but they have "second thoughts" and are learning wants, and they believe that now as never before they are doing the greatest good, to the greatest number. One branch of the relief committee is proving the appeals of the needy and exposing impostors, and the success of the latter class in getting undesired aid is almost at zero. There are six distributing stations in the tornado section, with general headquarters at the Merchants' exchange.

STEVENSON

A Possibility That He May Be Nominated for President.

The Vice President is Immensely Popular in the South.

It is Thought by Washington Democrats That the Nominations Line Between Him and Grover.

CHICAGO, June 5.—A Washington special says the feeling is growing here among democrats that the nomination between Grover Cleveland and William H. Taft is a close one. It probably all depends on the attitude of Illinois. Illinois has been counted for Morrison heretofore. The rank and file of the party are not opposed to Stevenson, but there is a fear among some of the Illinois democratic leaders, it is said, that he would not recognize the political machine. Throughout the south Stevenson is immensely popular. This is especially true in Kentucky, Florida, North Carolina and Alabama. Kentucky will probably take the lead in the convention for the vice-president if he is given a complimentary vote to Blount. The objection to Hoes, in fact the only weak spot in his candidacy, is his comparatively recent affiliation with the republican party.

The southern democrats in congress are afraid of Hoes' record in this regard. Stevenson would easily be the nominee over Hoes. It is said, if his own state would only formally present his name. The indications are that it will not, but will support Hoes instead.

It is barely possible that a southern army may be nominated by the states for vice president, but hardly probable. The southern men themselves seem to feel that the time has not arrived when the democratic party can safely venture to take a nomination south of the Mason and Dixon line. Senator Daniel will be the most popular candidate for vice president, but as he is an ex-confederate he will be proscribed. Senator Blackburn, however, cannot be proscribed for the pro-slavery is an ex-confederate, and he, too, expects nothing more than a complimentary. In fact, all the names mentioned in connection with the presidential ticket, except Tillman, are ex-confederates. Speaker Crisp is doubly disqualified—that is, constitutionally and politically. He was born in England, which will prevent him becoming a president under the constitution, and he served in the Confederate army, which is a political disqualification, unwritten but equally as binding in its effect.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Preparations Being Made for the Accommodation of the National Committee.

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—The two busiest men in St. Louis Thursday were Senator James E. Boyd and the republican national convention and ex-senator-at-large H. L. Sworick, of the national committee. Col. Sworick has completed every detail for the accommodation of the national committee men, who will arrive here Monday next. On the Wednesday following that party meeting will be held when the roll of delegates will be made up. This roll will not include contestants, as that matter will be decided by the credentials committee.

Gen. J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa, will probably be the only absentee, owing to illness.

Col. Sworick was busily dictating letters to a stenographer when seen by a representative of the United Press. In the lapel of his coat was a large Illinois badge. Col. Sworick hails from Iowa, and has been and is still an enthusiastic Allean man.
